

Emigration to Brazil reaches lowest levels since the pandemic crisis

2025-07-22

In 2024, 476 Portuguese entered Brazil, according to data from the Brazilian Ministry of Justice and Public Security. This ministry accounted for a total of 37,302 foreigners entering Brazil, with the Portuguese accounting for 1.3% of this total. +

After a slight decline in the number of Portuguese nationals entering Brazil in 2023 (-2.7%), Portuguese emigration to the country decreased more significantly in 2024 (-13%). The number of entries is now approaching the levels recorded during the pandemic period. The number of Portuguese citizens entering Brazil is still far from the figure recorded in 2013: 2,904, the highest in the period under review. The recessive trend in recent years has translated into a relative loss of importance of Portuguese immigration: while in 2013 the Portuguese accounted for 4.7% of the inflows to Brazil, in 2024 they represented only 1.3%.
