

Portuguese emigration to Canada decreases again in 2025

2026-09-01

There were 520 Portuguese who entered Canada in 2025, according to data from Citizenship and Immigration Canada. The official statistics department accounted for a total of 393,750 entries of foreigners in Canadian territory in that year, with the Portuguese accounting for 0.1% of this total. +

Following the decrease recorded in 2024, Portuguese emigration to Canada declined again in 2025, with 16.8% fewer entries than in the previous year. This trend mirrors the reduction in the total number of foreign entries into Canada, although the latter was slightly more pronounced (-18.6%). The number of Portuguese entries is now approaching the levels observed in the period preceding the 2008 crisis. During the period under review, the lowest value was recorded in 2003 (329 entries), while the highest was in 2023 (1,005 entries).
